BARBADOS – FIFTH FOLLOW-UP REPORT

I. Introduction

1. This report is the fifth follow-up report by Barbados to the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF) Plenary on the action taken to implement the recommended action listed in the third mutual evaluation report (MER) of Barbados which was adopted in May 2008. Barbados has submitted four previous follow-up reports in May and October 2009 and May and November 2010, respectively. In accordance with present procedures the following is a report on measures taken by Barbados to deal with the recommended actions in those Financial Action Task Force (FATF) Recommendations rated partially compliant (PC) or non compliant (NC). Details on the actions are outlined in Annex 1 of this report

2. Barbados received ratings of PC or NC on nine (9) of the sixteen (16) Core and Key Recommendations and largely compliant (LC) or compliant (C) on the remaining seven (7) Core and Key Recommendations as follows:

II. Summary of progress made by Barbados

5. Since the MER, the authorities in Barbados began to assess the various means to achieve compliance. Some measures included legislative amendments to specific laws and proposals for new legislation. A new Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism (MLFT) Bill, a Corporate and Trust Service Providers Bill, the Transnational Organized Crime (Prevention and Control) Bill and the Prevention of Corruption Bill were finalized and approved by Cabinet. The new MLFT Bill amends the relevant sections of the Securities Act (SA), the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act (MACMA), the Insurance Act, the Exempt Insurance Act, the Cooperative Societies Act(CSA), the Proceeds of Crime Act, the International Business Companies Act, the Drugs (Prevention and Control) Act, the Charities Act, the International Trusts Act, the Societies with Restricted Liability Act and the Mutual Funds Act. These pieces of legislation were due to be placed in Parliament for debate in June 2010. Most of the examiners' recommendations set out under Rs.3,4,5,6,8,9,11,12,14,15,16,21,22,23,24,34,36,38,SR.I,SR.III and SR.IV were addressed by these statutes. A general framework for the regulation of stand-alone money value transfer providers was being considered in the proposed Financial Services Commission Bill. The Commission was due to be established by July 2010

6. In the last Follow-Up Report for November 2010 the authorities advised that debate on the legislative package which had been due in June 2010 was postponed to the next Parliamentary session beginning in October 2010. As such, there had been no substantive change in the situation reported in May 2010 with implementation of the majority of the examiners' recommendations awaiting enactment of relevant legislation. As a result of the above, it was recommended and agreed by the November 2010 Plenary that Barbados be placed on enhanced follow-up and a letter by the CFATF Chairman be sent to the Attorney General in Barbados to encourage Barbados' progress in relation to the enactment of relevant legislation. The recommended letter was sent on November 11, 2010 to the Attorney General of Barbados.

7. Summary of progress since the last follow-up report: The authorities have advised that debate on the legislative package has been ongoing during the present Parliamentary session and has resulted in the enactment of the International Corporate and Trust Service Providers Act (ICTSPA), the Transnational Organized Crime (Prevention and Control) Act (TOCPA), the Companies (Amendment) Act (CAA) and the Financial Services Commission Act (FSCA). The new MLFT Bill and the Prevention of Corruption Bill are still being debated. As a result of the passage of the FSCA, the Financial Services Commission (FSC) came into effect on April 1, 2011. Based on the aforementioned, this report will focus on the outstanding Recommendations to which new developments as reported in the updated matrix have occurred since the Fourth Follow-Up Report.

Key Recommendations

Recommendation 23

8. The last Follow-Up Report noted that the examiners' recommendations for the Registrar of Cooperatives to have the power to approve senior management of their licensees and the Securities Commission to approve ownership of significant or controlling interests of their registrants and use fit and proper criteria in approving directors, management and significant ownership, had been included in amendments to the new MLFT Bill which amends the SA and the CSA . As already noted the new MLFT Bill is still to be enacted, therefore leaving the examiners' recommendations above outstanding.

9. The recommendation for a general framework for the regulation of stand-alone money value transfer providers as indicated in the previous Follow-Up Report was being considered in the new FSC Bill. While the FSCA has been enacted, a copy has not been forwarded for verification. The authorities advise that the recommendation is under consideration for the new FSC which came into effect on April 1, 2011. Given the above, this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Recommendation 36

10. There have been no new developments since the previous Follow-Up Report with regard to the proposed amendments that were made to MACMA to incorporate provisions to address the examiners' recommendations for the revision of the definition of "serious offence", the inclusion of instrumentalities in restraint, forfeiture and confiscation provisions, the extension of the application of monitoring orders and other powers under the Proceeds of Crime Act (POCA) to MACMA. With regard to the recommendation to increase the capacity for information exchange by seeking bilateral agreements, it was noted in the previous Follow-Up Report that the FIU was in the process of negotiating several memoranda of understanding (MOUs) and had signed an MOU with the Netherlands Antilles. At present, the FIU has advised that it is continuing to negotiate several MOUs and has signed MOUs with St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Bermuda. Except for the last measure above, this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Special Recommendation I

11. The examiners' recommendation require the authorities to fully implement:

- a) the Palermo Convention by specifically legislating for human trafficking and updating the corruption/bribery laws
- b) UN Resolution S/RES/1373(2001) by explicitly legislating a mechanism to freeze assets of UN designated entities.

12. In the last Follow-Up Report the authorities advised that the examiners' recommendations had been incorporated in the new MLFT Bill which amended the POCA in the Fourth Schedule, the Transnational Organised Crime (Prevention and Control) Bill and the Prevention of Corruption Bill which had been approved by Cabinet and were due for enactment.

13. As already noted the TOCPCA has been enacted. Section 8 of TOCPCA criminalizes a range of offences as human trafficking, including the organizing and facilitating of the entry or exit from Barbados of a person for the purpose of exploitation such as the provision of sexual services, forced labour, slavery, servitude or similar service or removal of any human organs or human tissue etc. Section 9 of TOCPCA criminalises the offence of smuggling of persons.

14. Under section 13 of the TOCPCA a person guilty of the offence of trafficking in persons and the victim is a child, is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for life. When the victim is not a child, that person is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of BDS$1,500,000 or to imprisonment for 15 years or to both. A person guilty of the offence of smuggling of persons into Barbados without complying with the requirements for legal entry is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of BDS$1,500,000 or to imprisonment for 15 years. A person guilty of the offence of smuggling of persons which endanger or is likely to endanger the lives of the persons concerned is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of BDS$2,000,000 or to imprisonment for 25 years or to both.

15. The above penalties are in accordance with the requirements of article 2 of the Palermo Convention for serious offences. Additionally, the penalties meet Barbados's threshold for determining predicate offences for money laundering which is all offences punishable by death or at least 12 months imprisonment.

16. The recommendations with regard to the updating of the corruption/ bribery laws and implementing UN Resolution S/RES/1373(2001) remain outstanding.

Other Recommendations

Recommendation 12

17. The examiners' recommended action was for the authorities to enact measures to apply the requirements of Recommendations 5, 6, 8 to 11 and 17 to DNFBPs not licensed by the Central Bank. The situation as noted in the previous Follow-Up Report that the new MLFT Bill would extend the application of AML/CFT obligations to non-financial business entities and professionals remains unchanged awaiting the enactment of the law.

18. The enactment of the ICTSPA provides a framework for the establishment of a registration and licensing regime for international service providers pursuant to Part II of the Act. International service providers are defined as persons engaging in the business of international corporate service or international trust service. Section 5 of the ICTSPA stipulates the functions of the Director of International Business to include administration of the Act and monitoring and examination of the businesses of international service providers to determine compliance with the Act. Section 25 of the ICTSPA sets out enforcement powers that the Director of International Business can apply for a variety of situations including breaches of the ICTSPA.

19. There is no specific provision in the ICTSPA for international service providers to comply with the AML/CFT obligations of the MLFTA or for the Director of International Business to ensure compliance of the licensees under the Act with the MLFTA. This in conjunction with the fact as noted above that the new MLFT Bill extending the application of AML/CFT obligations to non-financial business entities and professionals has not been passed, effectively means that this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Recommendation 16

20. The examiners' recommendation was for the authorities to take measures to ensure that the requirements of Recommendations 13 to 15, 17 and 21 are applied to DNFBPs not licensed by the Central Bank. The analysis and conclusion as stated under Recommendation 12 is also applicable to Recommendation 16. As such, pending the enactment of the new MLFT Bill this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Recommendation 24

21. The examiners' recommendation required the authorities to take measures to ensure that the requirements of Recommendations 24 and 25 should apply to DNFBPs not licensed by the Central Bank. As noted in the last Follow-Up Report the amended MLFTA extends the application of AML/CFT obligations to non-financial business entities and professionals. With regard to the authorities' assertion that the enactment of the ICTSPA establishes a registrations and licensing regime for international service providers, the analysis and conclusion as stated under Recommendation 12 is also applicable to Recommendation 24. As such, pending the enactment of the proposed laws this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Recommendation 30

22. As noted in the last follow-up report the Office of the Attorney General approved the creation of six additional posts at the FIU. These included a Deputy Director, 2 additional analysts, an information technology specialist, an institutional examiner and a clerk/typist. These posts, once filled, were expected to greatly enhance the FIU's capacity to execute its mandate.

The FIU upgraded its IT system through the acquisition of a more robust database system and increased protection through the installation of additional firewalls and research tools. The Royal Barbados Police Force had recruited an additional 47 persons bringing the total number of persons recruited since 2006 to approximately 200. With regard to supervisory resources, at present the FSCA has been enacted and the FSC came into effect on April 1, 2011. No copy of the FSCA or information as to the functions, powers and resources of the FSC has been provided. Until such information is provided, this Recommendation remains partially outstanding.

Recommendation 34

23. In the previous Follow-Up Report it was noted that the examiners' recommendation for the authorities to implement measures for monitoring and ensuring compliance of international trusts with AML/CFT requirements had been incorporated into the International Corporate and Trust Service Providers Bill which was due to be enacted shortly. Additionally, supervision was to be strengthened with the establishment of the FSC which would be responsible for ensuring compliance of international trusts with AML/CFT requirements.

24. At present, the enactment of the ICTSPA provides a framework for the establishment of a registration and licensing regime for international service providers pursuant to Part II of the Act. International service providers are defined as persons engaging in the business of international corporate service or international trust service. Section 5 of the ICTSPA stipulates the functions of the Director of International Business to include administration of the Act and monitoring and examination of the businesses of international service providers to determine compliance with the Act. Section 25 of the ICTSPA sets out enforcement powers that the Director of International Business can apply for a variety of situations including breaches of the ICTSPA.

25. There is no specific provision in the ICTSPA for international service providers to comply with the AML/CFT obligations of the MLFTA or for the Director of International Business to ensure compliance of the licensees under the Act with the MLFTA. Additionally, the new MLFT Bill extending the application of AML/CFT obligations to non-financial business entities and professionals i.e. international service providers has still to be enacted.

26. With regard to the establishment of the FSC, the FSCA has been enacted but a copy has not been forwarded so it is not possible to verify if the FSC is responsible for ensuring compliance of international trusts with AML/CFT requirements. Given the above this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Special Recommendation VI

27. The authorities advised in the previous Follow-Up Report that a general framework for the regulation of stand-alone money value transfer providers was being considered in the FSCA. While the FSCA has been enacted, a copy has not been forwarded for verification. The authorities advise that the recommendation is under consideration for the new FSC which came into effect on April 1, 2011. Given the above, this Recommendation remains outstanding.

Special recommendation VII

28. As reported in the last Follow-Up Report the recommendation that stand-alone money remitters be monitored for compliance with the requirements of SR VII was to be incorporated into the general regulatory framework being considered in the FSCA. While the FSCA has been enacted, a copy has not been forwarded for verification. The authorities advise that the recommendation is under consideration for the new FSC which came into effect on April 1, 2011. Given the above, this Recommendation remains outstanding

Conclusion

29. While the enactment of the ICTSPA, the TOCPA, the CAA and the FSCA do have provisions which address some of the examiners' recommended measures under the Recommendations reviewed above, full implementation requires the enactment of the new MLFT Bill. Additionally a copy of the FSCA and information on the operations of the FSC need to be submitted in order to assess implementation. At present, only Recs. 30, 33 and SR I have improved levels of compliance since the last Follow-Up Report. Since the majority of recommendations are still awaiting the enactment of the new legislation, it is recommended that Barbados remain on enhanced follow-up and report back to the Plenary in November 2011.
